UDA (Universal Dance Association, <http://uda.varsity.com/>)

UDA dance instructors bring new choreographies from Universal Dance Association (UDA) which stir every Cheerdancer's blood. The Universal Dance Association was founded in 1980 in the USA to give all dance teams a special education. From the very beginning, UDA focused on the highest standards, the finest instructors, the best choreographers and the most exciting and innovative routines anywhere!

This year we are happy to host Mandy Pruett and Michelle Ellis!

Mandy Pruett holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Dance, with a minor in Performing Arts, from Lindenwood University in St. Louis, Missouri, USA, where she also danced on LU's nationally-ranked Lion Line Dance Team for three years and served as a captain and nationals choreographer. She also danced professionally with the Mid America Dance Company in St. Louis, MO, USA. Some of her performance credits include the 2006 Jerry Lewis

MDA Telethon and the NDTC Opening Number on ESPN. Pruett is a 13 year veteran staff member with Universal Dance Association and has served as Territory Manager, summer curriculum choreographer, Head Instructor, and National Dance Team Championships judge. She has coached collegiate programs such as William Jewell College, the University of Kansas, and four-time National Champion Hawaii Pacific University Dance Team in Honolulu, Hawaii. Currently, Mandy travels the US as a master choreographer in pom, jazz, and hip hop for V!ROC, a Varsity Brand which specializes in National-caliber custom routines. She is also resident yoga instructor for Quixotic Fusion Performance Ensemble in her hometown of Kansas City, MO, USA (<http://www.quixoticfusion.com/www.quixoticfusion.com>).

Originally from Phoenix, Arizona, Michelle Ellis has trained extensively in a variety of dance styles. This is her third year as an instructor for Universal Dance Association, where she has developed a love for working with young dancers and sharing her knowledge of dance. She has studied Ballet all over the United States at prestigious schools such as School of American Ballet, American Ballet Theater, San Francisco

Ballet, Suzanne Farrel Ballet, and Pacific Northwest Ballet, on full scholarship. She has also been awarded many national titles and scholarships including Miss Jump National Title, New York City Dance Alliance National Finalist, West Coast Dance Explosion National Finalist, KAR Miss Dance, Jr. Miss Dance of America Finalist, and Miss. Dance of Arizona. Michelle has performed the role of 'Spanish Dancer' in the Moscow Ballet's production of 'The Nutcracker,' as well as the role of 'Clara' for several seasons with Ballet Arizona. She was a dancer in School of American Ballet's Choreography Workshop, featuring choreographers from all over the world. She is a member of the University of San Diego Dance Team, where she now attends school.

A Dance Camp will be held on two levels: advance and intermediate. You can choose the level at the dance camp. So, split your team and get a various selection of new choreographies!
